HACK memphis

We're creating an ecosystem to host a hardware and software developer weekend to forge a community of hackers and makers in Memphis. All types of development professionals and amateurs from the metro area will be invited to come together and make incredible things - and we want you to be a part of it!

This event will thrive with your generous support, and we truly hope that you will be energized to join us in this endeavor. The packages detailed below outline our needs and what we can offer to potential sponsors; however, if you feel that none of these packages suit your company, please contact us and we'll work with you!

If you have any questions, feel free to contact our sponsorship coordinator:

Interesting Statistics

We want you to know who we expect to attend, and we're happy to tell you that we have interest from many of the local user groups and maker organizations in the Memphis area.

Developer Meetups

Meetups & User Groups	Membership / Reach	Regular Attendance
Java User Group	145	20
PHP User Group	277	12
Python User Group	50	15
.NET User Group	50	12
Midsouth Makers	117	8
Ruby User Group	18	10

We are currently expecting between 30 and 50 software and hardware developers to attend, but will have better estimates by mid-Summer.
